Hurt in Italy

A letter from their son, T/5, Frank Mauro, received Nov. 25, and a War Department telegram received Nov. 26 brought news to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mauro of 491 Lexington Avenue that Frank was wounded in Italy Nov. 10.

T/5 Mauro wrote that he had been wounded in the right foot "somewhere in Italy," while the telegram read "slightly wounded in action Nov. 10 in Italy."

He received his training at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and was sent overseas. T/5 Mauro has not had a furlough since he entered the service.
